

The Do Not Call list is very important to me because it has allowed some peace into my home. before being put on that list my phone would ring all day and evning long. Also the more they would call the more I would worry about my information being put out there.

please do not weaken the law, keep it in place

thank you